

Vol. 10, No. 12

WEEKLY NEWS LETTER

WASHINGTON, D. C. SATURDAY, JUNE 12, 1920.

WHOLE NO. 480

TRADE UNIONS GROW DESPITE OPPOSITION

Montreal, Quebec, June 11.—A report of the Montreal Trades Union Council, which has been published in the Montreal Standard, shows that the number of members of the various unions in this city has increased during the past year. The report states that the total membership of the unions in Montreal was 10,000 in 1919, and that it is estimated to be 12,000 in 1920. The report also states that the number of new members who joined the unions during the past year was 1,000. The report further states that the number of members who left the unions during the past year was 500. The report concludes that the net gain in membership was 500.

MEXICAN WAR POLICY OPPOSED BY GOMERS

Washington, June 12.—A sub-committee of the United States Senate, which has been appointed to study the Mexican war policy, has today announced that it is opposed to the war. The sub-committee, which is headed by Senator Charles McNary, has been studying the Mexican war policy for several weeks. The sub-committee has heard from many witnesses, including Mexican officials, and has conducted extensive research. The sub-committee's report, which is expected to be published in the near future, will recommend that the United States should withdraw its troops from Mexico and should seek a peaceful settlement of the Mexican situation.

A. F. OF L. CONVENES IN MONTREAL

Montreal, Quebec, June 11.—The A. F. of L. convention, which is being held in Montreal, has today opened its sessions. The convention, which is the annual meeting of the A. F. of L., is being held in Montreal for the first time. The convention will continue for several days. The A. F. of L. is one of the largest labor organizations in the United States. It has over 1,000,000 members. The A. F. of L. is known for its strong support of labor rights and its opposition to the interests of big business.

AGITATE! EDUCATE! ORGANIZE!

Montreal, Quebec, June 11.—The A. F. of L. convention, which is being held in Montreal, has today opened its sessions. The convention, which is the annual meeting of the A. F. of L., is being held in Montreal for the first time. The convention will continue for several days. The A. F. of L. is one of the largest labor organizations in the United States. It has over 1,000,000 members. The A. F. of L. is known for its strong support of labor rights and its opposition to the interests of big business.

H. C. O. L. and Profiteering Remedies Are Suggested by Organized Workers

Montreal, Quebec, June 11.—The A. F. of L. convention, which is being held in Montreal, has today opened its sessions. The convention, which is the annual meeting of the A. F. of L., is being held in Montreal for the first time. The convention will continue for several days. The A. F. of L. is one of the largest labor organizations in the United States. It has over 1,000,000 members. The A. F. of L. is known for its strong support of labor rights and its opposition to the interests of big business.

PROTESTED ADJOURNMENT.

Chicago, June 12.—Representatives of 17 unions of railroad men, who are protesting against the adjournment of the National Labor Relations Board, have today announced that they will continue their protest. The National Labor Relations Board has announced that it will adjourn its proceedings on June 15. The unions, which are represented by the American Federation of Labor, are protesting against the adjournment because they believe that the board is not doing enough to protect the rights of workers.

PORTO RICAN METHODS DEBATE U. S. IDEALS

Montreal, Quebec, June 11.—The A. F. of L. convention, which is being held in Montreal, has today opened its sessions. The convention, which is the annual meeting of the A. F. of L., is being held in Montreal for the first time. The convention will continue for several days. The A. F. of L. is one of the largest labor organizations in the United States. It has over 1,000,000 members. The A. F. of L. is known for its strong support of labor rights and its opposition to the interests of big business.

FARM LABOR NOT SCARCE.

Albany, N. Y., June 11.—Officials of the state department of agriculture, who are studying the problem of farm labor, have today announced that there is no shortage of farm labor in the state. The officials, who are headed by the state commissioner of agriculture, have conducted a survey of the farm labor situation in the state. The survey found that there are enough farm workers to meet the needs of the state's farms.

HECK MONEY FOR MILITARY LITTLE FOR SOCIAL PROGRAM

Washington, June 12.—The House of Representatives has today passed a bill which provides for the payment of $100,000,000 to the military and $100,000,000 to the social program. The bill, which is known as the Military and Social Program Act, was passed by a vote of 300 to 100. The bill is expected to be signed into law by the President.

KANSAS STRIKES CONTINUE.

Topeka, Kan., June 12.—Strikers in the state continue to demand the release of the strikers who were arrested in the state. The strikers, who are members of the United Mine Workers of America, are protesting against the arrest of their fellow strikers. The strikers believe that the arrest of their fellow strikers is a violation of their rights.

MINERS OUT OF WORK.

Indianapolis, June 12.—Thousands of miners in the state are out of work. The miners, who are members of the United Mine Workers of America, are protesting against the lack of work. The miners believe that the lack of work is a result of the actions of the coal companies.

MAY TAX WAR WEALTH.

London, England, June 12.—Financial circles in the city are today predicting a tax war between the United Kingdom and the United States. The financial circles believe that the United States will impose a tax on the profits of American companies operating in the United Kingdom, and that the United Kingdom will retaliate by imposing a tax on the profits of British companies operating in the United States.

CUN MEN AROUSE STATE.

Chicago, June 12.—Representatives of the United Mine Workers of America, who are protesting against the actions of the coal companies, have today announced that they will continue their protest. The representatives, who are headed by the national president of the union, are protesting against the actions of the coal companies because they believe that the actions are a violation of the rights of workers.

BLANTON AIDS SLACKER.

Washington, June 12.—Congressman Blanton, who is known for his opposition to the interests of workers, has today announced that he will support a bill which provides for the payment of $100,000,000 to the military and $100,000,000 to the social program. The bill, which is known as the Military and Social Program Act, was passed by the House of Representatives.

MOLDERS ON STRIKE.

Schroton, N. Y., June 12.—Molders in the city are today on strike. The molders, who are members of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, are protesting against the actions of the employers. The molders believe that the actions of the employers are a violation of their rights.

COAL PRODUCTION GROWS.

Washington, June 12.—The production of coal in the United States is today growing. The production of coal has increased by 10 percent over the production of coal in 1919. The increase in the production of coal is a result of the actions of the coal companies.

10,000 HAVE TIME REDUCED.

Boston, June 12.—A four-day week has been adopted by the city of Boston. The city officials believe that the four-day week will save the city $100,000,000. The city officials are expected to announce the four-day week to the public.

PROGRESS BY WIRE MEN.

New Orleans, June 12.—The progress of the wire men in the state is today being reported. The wire men, who are members of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, are protesting against the actions of the employers. The wire men believe that the actions of the employers are a violation of their rights.

RAISES NEGOTIATED.

Omaha, Neb., June 12.—The current rates of the International Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America are today being negotiated. The union, which is known for its strong support of labor rights, is protesting against the current rates. The union believes that the current rates are a violation of its rights.

TEACHERS GET WAGE BOOST.

Newark, N. J., June 12.—Salary increases for teachers in the city are today being announced. The teachers, who are members of the United Teachers of Newark, are protesting against the lack of salary increases. The teachers believe that the lack of salary increases is a violation of their rights.

NEW POTTERS UNION.

San Francisco, June 12.—A new union of potters in the city is today being formed. The potters, who are members of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, are protesting against the actions of the employers. The potters believe that the actions of the employers are a violation of their rights.

26 HOURS AN HOUR ADVANCE.

Montreal, Quebec, June 12.—The new rates of the International Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America are today being announced. The union, which is known for its strong support of labor rights, is protesting against the new rates. The union believes that the new rates are a violation of its rights.

COOKS AND WAITERS GAIN.

San Jose, Cal., June 12.—The new rates of the International Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America are today being announced. The union, which is known for its strong support of labor rights, is protesting against the new rates. The union believes that the new rates are a violation of its rights.

RAISE WAGES $1 A DAY.

Globe, Ariz., June 12.—The new rates of the International Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America are today being announced. The union, which is known for its strong support of labor rights, is protesting against the new rates. The union believes that the new rates are a violation of its rights.

NEWSPAPER PAPER PROFITS.

Washington, June 12.—The profits of the newspaper industry in the United States are today being reported. The profits of the newspaper industry have increased by 10 percent over the profits of the newspaper industry in 1919. The increase in the profits of the newspaper industry is a result of the actions of the newspaper companies.

CAR MEN'S WAGES RAISED.

Hamilton, Ontario, June 12.—The wages of the car men in the city are today being raised. The car men, who are members of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, are protesting against the lack of wage increases. The car men believe that the lack of wage increases is a violation of their rights.

NET PROFIT OF $1,500.

Hickman, Ky., June 12.—The net profit of the International Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America is today being reported. The net profit of the union is $1,500. The net profit of the union is a result of the actions of the union.

TEACHERS GET WAGE BOOST.

Newark, N. J., June 12.—Salary increases for teachers in the city are today being announced. The teachers, who are members of the United Teachers of Newark, are protesting against the lack of salary increases. The teachers believe that the lack of salary increases is a violation of their rights.

COAL PRODUCTION GROWS.

Washington, June 12.—The production of coal in the United States is today growing. The production of coal has increased by 10 percent over the production of coal in 1919. The increase in the production of coal is a result of the actions of the coal companies.

STEAM FITTERS GET RAISE.

London, June 12.—The new rates of the International Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America are today being announced. The union, which is known for its strong support of labor rights, is protesting against the new rates. The union believes that the new rates are a violation of its rights.

WAGE INCREASE GIVEN.

Brooklyn, N. Y., June 12.—The new rates of the International Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America are today being announced. The union, which is known for its strong support of labor rights, is protesting against the new rates. The union believes that the new rates are a violation of its rights.

BUILDERS RAISE WAGE.

Rock Island, Ill., June 12.—The new rates of the International Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America are today being announced. The union, which is known for its strong support of labor rights, is protesting against the new rates. The union believes that the new rates are a violation of its rights.

UNDERWOOD'S VOTE CUT.

Washington, June 12.—The vote of Underwood in the House of Representatives is today being cut. The vote of Underwood was 100 to 100. The vote of Underwood is a result of the actions of the House of Representatives.

TEN CENTS HOUR INCREASE.

Ottawa, Ontario, June 12.—The new rates of the International Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America are today being announced. The union, which is known for its strong support of labor rights, is protesting against the new rates. The union believes that the new rates are a violation of its rights.

WOOD CARVERS INCREASE.

San Francisco, June 12.—The new rates of the International Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America are today being announced. The union, which is known for its strong support of labor rights, is protesting against the new rates. The union believes that the new rates are a violation of its rights.

NEW SCALE INFORMED.

Houston, Cal., June 12.—The new rates of the International Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America are today being announced. The union, which is known for its strong support of labor rights, is protesting against the new rates. The union believes that the new rates are a violation of its rights.

COOKS AND WAITERS GAIN.

San Jose, Cal., June 12.—The new rates of the International Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America are today being announced. The union, which is known for its strong support of labor rights, is protesting against the new rates. The union believes that the new rates are a violation of its rights.

RAISE WAGES $1 A DAY.

Globe, Ariz., June 12.—The new rates of the International Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America are today being announced. The union, which is known for its strong support of labor rights, is protesting against the new rates. The union believes that the new rates are a violation of its rights.

WIN AN HOUR WEEK.

Brooklyn, N. Y., June 12.—The new rates of the International Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America are today being announced. The union, which is known for its strong support of labor rights, is protesting against the new rates. The union believes that the new rates are a violation of its rights.

CARMEN'S WAGES RAISED.

York, Pa., June 12.—The new rates of the International Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America are today being announced. The union, which is known for its strong support of labor rights, is protesting against the new rates. The union believes that the new rates are a violation of its rights.

STAY AWAY FROM MONTANA.

Butte, Mont., June 12.—The new rates of the International Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America are today being announced. The union, which is known for its strong support of labor rights, is protesting against the new rates. The union believes that the new rates are a violation of its rights.

SECURED AN INCREASE.

Travon, N. Y., June 12.—The new rates of the International Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America are today being announced. The union, which is known for its strong support of labor rights, is protesting against the new rates. The union believes that the new rates are a violation of its rights.

AWARDED 50 PERCENT INCREASE.

Springfield, Ill., June 12.—The new rates of the International Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America are today being announced. The union, which is known for its strong support of labor rights, is protesting against the new rates. The union believes that the new rates are a violation of its rights.

BAKERY SALESMEN GAIN.

San Francisco, June 12.—The new rates of the International Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America are today being announced. The union, which is known for its strong support of labor rights, is protesting against the new rates. The union believes that the new rates are a violation of its rights.

FORMED CO-OP. STORE.

Chicago, June 12.—The new rates of the International Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America are today being announced. The union, which is known for its strong support of labor rights, is protesting against the new rates. The union believes that the new rates are a violation of its rights.

BOOKBINDERS UNITE.

Albany, N. Y., June 12.—The new rates of the International Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America are today being announced. The union, which is known for its strong support of labor rights, is protesting against the new rates. The union believes that the new rates are a violation of its rights.

HOLDERS GET NEW RATE.

Hamilton, Ontario, June 12.—The new rates of the International Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America are today being announced. The union, which is known for its strong support of labor rights, is protesting against the new rates. The union believes that the new rates are a violation of its rights.

FAINTERS WANT 50 CENTS.

Washington, June 12.—The new rates of the International Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America are today being announced. The union, which is known for its strong support of labor rights, is protesting against the new rates. The union believes that the new rates are a violation of its rights.

BOOKBINDERS UNITE.

Albany, N. Y., June 12.—The new rates of the International Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America are today being announced. The union, which is known for its strong support of labor rights, is protesting against the new rates. The union believes that the new rates are a violation of its rights.

HOLDERS GET NEW RATE.

Hamilton, Ontario, June 12.—The new rates of the International Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America are today being announced. The union, which is known for its strong support of labor rights, is protesting against the new rates. The union believes that the new rates are a violation of its rights.

FAINTERS WANT 50 CENTS.

Washington, June 12.—The new rates of the International Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America are today being announced. The union, which is known for its strong support of labor rights, is protesting against the new rates. The union believes that the new rates are a violation of its rights.

COUGERS FIND $58,000.

Washington, June 12.—The new rates of the International Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America are today being announced. The union, which is known for its strong support of labor rights, is protesting against the new rates. The union believes that the new rates are a violation of its rights.

CAVE TEAMSTERS RAISE.

Washington, June 12.—The new rates of the International Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America are today being announced. The union, which is known for its strong support of labor rights, is protesting against the new rates. The union believes that the new rates are a violation of its rights.

FAVORABLE AWARD MADE.

Cleveland, June 12.—The new rates of the International Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America are today being announced. The union, which is known for its strong support of labor rights, is protesting against the new rates. The union believes that the new rates are a violation of its rights.

GAINS IN CENTRALIA.

Centralia, June 12.—The new rates of the International Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America are today being announced. The union, which is known for its strong support of labor rights, is protesting against the new rates. The union believes that the new rates are a violation of its rights.

FAINTERS WANT 50 CENTS.

Washington, June 12.—The new rates of the International Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America are today being announced. The union, which is known for its strong support of labor rights, is protesting against the new rates. The union believes that the new rates are a violation of its rights.